

When Privilege Matters

How can you achieve peace of mind when producing thousands of documents containing privileged information? Use Redact-It® with intelligent, customizable search and redaction capabilities.

Redact-It is the most efficient, cost-effective way to remove privileged information and personally identifiable information. Because it was designed just for redaction, it helps your legal staff get through more files faster and, should the need arise, can show that every effort was made to protect privilege.

Q.

A.

Was some privileged information just made discoverable?	Easily remove all redactions with a certain reason code and create new production-ready files in one step.
Tired of performing the same redaction steps over and over?	Record your steps and apply it to all similar files.
Faced with piles of scanned TIFF documents?	Redact-It can perform OCR on TIFF and PDF documents, creating searchable text for redaction.
Worried about privilege being waived from accidental disclosure?	Redact-It's extensive logging can prove every reasonable step was taken to protect data.

Other features critical to legal staff include:

- Route redactions for review
- Extensive logging of every redaction created, script run, and search term applied
- Excellent verify tools to quickly confirm each redaction
- Record redaction scripts to apply to other documents
- Bates numbering

Redact-It is convenient and works the way your users work, supporting the most common formats used by businesses today.

- Supports native Microsoft Office formats, TIFF and PDF
- Redacts Microsoft Outlook email messages and attachments
- Original document is never altered; output secure, redacted file to TIFF or PDF

Don't just take our word for it. Try Redact-It yourself.
